PALMPEX27 STAMP SHOW

The next National Stamp Exhibition is to be held from 1-3 October 2027 at the C.E.T. Arena, Barber Hall, Waldegrave Street, Palmerston North.

NZ POST

Many of us use NZ Post for posting our stamp orders. Over the last two years the cost of posting a letter has risen quite sharply. In July 2026 the price of a letter within NZ has gone from $2.90 to $3.60, an increase of 24%. Given that we are going through 'a cost of living' crisis government organisations don't seem to understand that large increases have not been helpful to businesses and others who use their services. NZ Post often comments on the continued reduction of letters that they process each year, these large price increases do not help. We hope NZ Post will review before making more large increases in the coming year.

Secondly, NZ Post's service has had some mixed results. Mail can often arrive in NZ or Overseas quickly, but other times very slow and often you wonder where the item has sat before being forwarded on. For instance an ordinary letter from Auckland to Dunedin taking 2 weeks to be delivered to a PO Box. Another example an Airmail letter from NZ to Adelaide, South Australia taking 6 weeks to get to its destination!

CP 2026 SUPPLEMENT

The Annual Supplement was sent out this year in July. Please check if you have made your payment for those who receive them. If you have not already paid, we will be sending out an overdue notice shortly.

NZ 1d ORANGE FULL FACE QUEEN ON WHITE PAPER

There has been much discussion recently for this stamp which is currently listed in the SG British Commonwealth Catalogue as SG 3b. Collectors will know of the articles that have been written on this stamp and whether it was an early trial printing by John Richardson. Unfortunately, there is no clear evidence of when this one sheet was printed. Clearly, the stamps that have been found and recorded are different from those that are listed and it needs to be given a listing in the catalogue. We believe that these stamps are an early example of the 1d Davies SG 33/CP A1e Group. We will list this stamp in the next annual supplement as A1e(1a) 1d Orange Mint with a suggested price of $10,000. If any collectors have further information and evidence on this stamp we'd be pleased for them to get in touch with us.

BOSTON 2026

One of the highlights this year was our visit to attend The World International Stamp Exhibition in Boston, USA held at the end of May. The US has held a World Stamp Show once every 10 Years and this was in the Convention Centre in Boston. The Exhibition hosted 100 Trade Stands, a Very Large US Postal Stand Celebrating the US 250th Anniversary and 4000 Frames of Competitive Stamp Exhibits. In the Court of Honour there was an amazing Early US Stamp Exhibit. The title page has the Famous 1918 24c Airmail 'Inverted Jenny' stamp in a Block of 4! For New Zealand in another exhibit there was our Famous 1903 4d Lake Taupo with the Centre Inverted which is unique displayed by its new owner, Mark Horne. We spent an enjoyable 6 days at the Exhibition visiting all of the Trade Stands, meeting up with collectors, viewing the exhibits and attending some social events. Well done to the organisers for their hard work in organising a very successful show.

CERTIFYING STAMPS

For the more complicated stamps, particularly the NZ Full Face Queens, certificates of authenticity are needed when selling rare printings. For NZ Stamps we recommend sending them to the Royal Philatelic Society of NZ for their Expert Committee to give their valued opinion. This year we sent to RPSNZ Expert Committee 56 Full Face Queens for Certificates from one collection before the stamps were put up for sale. It was important when we offered these stamps for sale by auction that they were described and estimated correctly. Collectors can be confident when bidding on such lots. Their website is www.rpsnz.org.nz
