Royal New Zealand Navy (RNZN) 75th Anniversary (5 October 2016)

The Royal New Zealand Navy was formed on 1 October 1941 by King George VI, and thus 2016 marks the 75th anniversary of the RNZN (Operation Neptune). Today the Navy is an independent maritime force, serving in conflict, to disaster relief and supporting the UN, and playing their role in contributing to the prosperity and security of New Zealand.

There are six stamps in the set, each representing a different aspect of the Navy's history or role today. The six selected images are seen through a round 'port-hole', which is covered in a UV coating to simulate glass. Surrounding this is an image of a brass scuttle that was recovered from the wreck of the 'Moa' in 1943. The denomination is printed in a metallic ink. The miniature sheet shows an inshore patrol-vessel; the set FDC features a photo of 'HMNZS Endeavour 1' at McMurdo Sound, Ross Dependency in January 1957.

Designs:

$1.00 The loss of HMS Neptune 19 December 1941, which was the single greatest loss ever suffered by the RNZN, when HMS Neptune was lost to a minefield during the Second World War, with the loss of 150 Kiwi sailors. The stamp shows brothers Bruce and William Anderson.

$1.00 Frigate RNZN Pukaki during the Korean War 1951.

$1.80 RNZN women personnel at sea 1986-2016.

$2.20 Frigate HMNZS Te Mana 2004 supporting the United Nations

$2.70 Canterbury earthquake 2011 disaster relief. The stamp shows a Navy sailor amidst the rubble in Christchurch.

$3.30 'The Navy Family'.

Designed by Helcia Knap, New Zealand Post Wellington and printed by Southern Colour Print Ltd, Dunedin by offset lithography in the four process colours and metallic gold ink plus central round image in a spot UV coating to simulate glass, on 104gsm red-phosphor gummed stamp-paper, perf 14½x14, in sheets of 25 and a six stamp miniature sheet.

The Lord of the Rings, The Hobbit, 'The One Ring' miniature sheet (19 October 2016)

The first reaction to this surprise extra issue was do we really need yet another Lord of the Rings release?

As it turns out the resulting miniature sheet is a fine item indeed.

Set against a map of Middle-Earth is a circular $10.00 stamp inscribed 'Middle-Earth~New Zealand' and depicting The One Ring, with elvish writing on both sides. What makes this special is that not only is the Ring embossed, so that it really stands out from the stamp-paper, but also it is printed utilizing 22 carat gold foil. Wow!

This miniature sheet exists unnumbered, but if you wanted a numbered one, along with numbered versions of all 37 (yes, 37!) other Lord of the Rings and The Hobbit miniature sheets, you could purchase them in a book, described by NZ Post as "A 'precious' collectable" and entitled 'A Journey through Middle-earth'.

For some reason NZ Post did not provide First Day Covers for this miniature sheet, I really don't know why, if the FDC envelope was of the same high standard as the miniature sheet, I'm sure they would have sold well. As it was we had to prepare M/S FDC's ourselves, so these may well be 'good'.

Designed by Richard Payne, New Zealand Post Wellington and printed by Southern Colour Print Ltd, Dunedin by offset lithography in the four process colours and 22 carat embossed gold foil, on Tullis Russell 104gsm red-phosphor gummed stamp-paper, perf 14½.

- 21(a) A1a (SG1) 1855 1d London print. This is four margin, large at sides, if just touching tip of top right corner, and huge at top with part of unit above. The cancel is neat and off the face. All in all a most presentable stamp. Has two Certificates: BPA London (1953); Odenweller (2011) (Cat. $40,000) $17,500
- (b) A1s (SG140) 1873 1d brown with advanced plate wear, "NZ" watermark, perf 12½. Has a good brown shade and good perfs, with a bold obliterator 1 cancel. Has two Certificates: RPSL (ex-Harmers) ; Odenweller (2014) (Cat. $25,000) $10,000
- (c) A1s (SG140) 1873 1d brown with advanced plate wear, "NZ" watermark, perf 12½. This second example of this rare stamp is a lighter brown shade, with excellent perfs and nicely centred, and an indistinct but light cancel just over face. Has an interesting small pre-printing paper-fold at top left. Again two Certificates: BPA London (1999); Odenweller (2014) (Cat. $25,000) $17,500
- (d) A6a (SG3) 1855 1/- London print. A fine stamp with four huge margins, with parts of other units at left and right. Good yellow-green shade, good blueing of the paper visible. Has an obliterator cancel over face, but not obtrusively so. Has two Certificates: BPA London (1974); Odenweller (2011) (Cat. $15,000) $11,000
- (e) A6b (SG6) 1857 1/- green Richardson print on blue paper, no watermark. A good stamp with four full margins, light obliterator 1 cancel leaving face mostly clear. Has two Certificates: Brandon, England (1987); Odenweller (2011) (Cat. $11,000) $7000
- A6c 1858-61 1/- Richardson print on white paper, no watermark. Two simply superb stamps:
- (f) A6c(1) (SG16) 1/- dull emerald-green, very good shade, four neat margins, light 1 in bars cancel (Auckland) mostly off face. A fine stamp indeed. Has two Certificates: Holcombe (1992); Odenweller (2014) (Cat. $4000) $3500
- (g) A6c(2) (SG17) 1/- blue-green, outstanding shade, four neat margins, very light 1 in bars cancel mostly off face. Difficult to better – gorgeous! Has two Certificates: RPSL (1972); Odenweller (2015) $4000
- (h) A6d(4) (SG45) 1862-64 1/- deep yellow-green Davies print, Large Star watermark. Four full margins, fine shade and wonderful light marking. Odenweller Certificate (2014) $800

Eighty-Five Years Ago

From The New Zealand Stamp Collector – February 1932

The 1931 Charity Stamp by Ray Collins

The dies were engraved and the plates manufactured for the surface printing process by Messrs Perkins Bacon & Co of London. The printing was done at the Government Printing Office, Wellington, on Cowan thick chalk-surfaced paper and the sheets were perforated 14½x14 by means of a comb machine.

The issue has been severely criticized. Certainly the stamps are not particularly pleasing. It is difficult to imagine that the central figure resembles a typical New Zealand boyscout. From our own experience we should imagine that any boy appearing with the waved locks shown on the stamp, would soon be made more than uncomfortable by his mates. In Mr Mitchell's original drawing the shading on the face was depicted by means of dots, but in the stamp the dots have been replaced by lines, with the result that the so-called scout appears to have been mixed up in a brawl, and to have emerged with two glorious black-eyes. The background is hardly typical New Zealand scenery, and the treeferns are certainly not realistic. The shape of the trunks is unusual and the trees have a hard metallic appearance as though they had been cast in bronze.

New Zealand Notes and Comment by Warwick Paterson

QEII 2d on 1½d Lake-brown N40a

I recently saw a sheet with an albino impression of the surcharge N40a(x). It looked to me as if this sheet had remained partially under the press as another sheet went through – the albino impression was diagonally slanted, continued over the bottom selvedge and petered out towards the top half of the sheet. However, the stamp so much in demand is the variety N41a 2d on 1½d small figures & stars.

A new plate-number is reported 10B10C on ordinary unsurfaced paper; this will be a shortlived one.

King George V Plates

In the George V engraved issues a plate number appeared at top left of each sheet. These are excellent property but obvious enough – except that some are rare or scarce in one perf, while being common in another perf. For example all the 1½d, 2d, 3d and 6d sheets printed on the Pictorial paper with sideways watermark (except 1½d) were later trimmed as to margins and it is quite unusual to find a good complete plate number. They are an underestimated group.

1960 Pictorials

- 534(a) O1a(w) 1960 ½d Manuka right selvedge block of eight complete double perfs, vertical and horizontal.
A new CP Cat. listing UHM $800
- (b) O3a(z) 1960 2d Kaka-Beak black colour omitted.
A vertical pair, the lower stamp complete missing black: no 'NEW ZEALAND', no 'Kowhai-Ngutu-Kaka', no black shading detail on leaves and branches; the upper stamp with just the tiniest trace visible of some of the black letters of 'ZEALAND'. Described as "The 'Nameless Twopenny'" and a wonderful proving piece. Stated to have been first located in October 1960 at the Bank of New South Wales (BNSW), Feilding, and also later in Wanganui. UHM $2000
- (c) O3a(z) 1960 2d Kaka-Beak black colour omitted.
A second vertical pair, this time the top stamp complete missing black, as described above; the lower stamp with a 0.5mm horizontal black line of the bottom of the letters of the New Zealand country name. A most interesting philatelic item, sadly both stamps hinged mint, together with a quality black-and-white photo of block of six. HM $1200
- (d) O3a 1960 2d Kaka-Beak single with heavy print of colours especially black.
This is not a double-print, rather it is a case of overinking producing a most unusual looking dark stamp. UHM $300
- (e) O3a 1960 2d Kaka-beak a strip of three and a strip of four, both with partial omission of black colour, progressively across the sheet. "New Zealand" is still just visible, but 'Kowhai-Ngutu-Kaka' is virtually gone. UHM each $250
- (f) O3a(z) 1960 2d Kaka-Beak used single black missing. Genuinely postally used with light postmark. Unusual to see used complete missing colours U $750
- (g) O3a(w) 1960 2d Kaka-Beak lower selvedge part imprint/plate 2251 block of twelve complete double perfs, vertical and horizontal, through lower strip of three and selvedge. A new CP Cat. listing. UHM $600

James Berry Artist Drawings

Two further detailed pencil drawings on tracing paper. These are much more than just initial sketches, they are in fact very similar to the final issued Health stamps – with some important differences.

9(a) 1949 Nurse and Child 2d+1d T21b.

This is very similar to the final design with a little girl being held on the nurse's lap and reaching up to blossom (?) on the branch of a tree. The major difference is that James Berry originally had the image reversed – the nurse is on the left of the design and thus faces right! The girl has her left arm raised instead of her right one. This is not simply a mirror image as all the wording 'POSTAGE & REVENUE 2D' 'HEALTH 1D' 'NEW ZEALAND' is the correct way round.

This is a fine piece of artwork, both nurse and child being finely delineated, and the reversed image composition being much improved over the design of the issued stamp – I wonder why it got turned around?

(b) 1954 Young Climber and Mt Everest 3d + 1½d T26b.

This is basically the same as the final issued stamp, but with quite a few differences. The young man is sitting on his rock and gazing upwards but not at Mt Everest, instead at Sir Edmund Hillary! It's actually rather a good sketch of Sir Ed too! Mt Everest is top right and the words 'Mt Aspiring' do not appear. Also the denomination is shown as '3d' rather than the correct '2d', and the Health component as '1½d' instead of '1d'. Also includes three small initial concept sketches.

Another fine piece of artwork, even if the actual design, with or without Edmund Hillary, is perhaps not one of James Berry's best.
