Latest CP Supplement

The 2020/21 CP Supplement has been completed and printed after the delays caused by New Zealand's lockdown. Standing order clients around the world should be receiving their set in the post around about now, depending on the speed of the post in these 'Covid' times. This latest supplement has had extensive revisions of the following sections including price increases and even some decreases.

Section A - Full Face Queens

There are some new listings of shades, varieties and overlaps including CP A1c (w) 1d Red No Watermark Overlap used priced at $7,500; CP A2b(x) 2d Blue No Watermark Overlap priced mint at $10,000 and used $2,500; CP A2d (8a) Milky Blue shade priced mint at $7,500 and used $1,000 and CP A4b(y) 4d Yellow Imperforate single used with 4 Full Imperf Margins priced at $4,000.

Section E - 1898 Pictorials

Again some new listings especially on Imperf varieties including CP E4a (w) Imperf at left priced mint at $2,000 and CP E4a(v) Imperf at top mint priced at $1,500. The 1/- Kea & Kaka CP E18c Abnormal Watermark is now priced at mint unhinged $8000 and mint $4,000, while the 2/- Milford CP E20d P11 Moss Green shade is priced mint unhinged at $2,500 and mint $1,000.

In the Official OPSO Section there is now a comprehensive pricing of all examples including some rare examples where very few examples are known.

Section L, 1935 Pictorials as well as the back of the book sections have been updated including Express Delivery, Airmails, Pigeon Post. In the Life Insurance Section X there are some good increases in the early Mint Unhinged stamps while many of the listings have now been priced including, among many such items, CP X11a(y) Mixed Perfs priced used at $500. New listings include CP X29a(z) 3c Baring Head with the Ochre-Yellow Colour Omitted priced Mint

Unhinged at $7,000. Lastly the Antarctic Section has been fully updated. Clients who are not on the standing order list and who wish to update their catalogue to the most up to date version should contact the office.

Market Update

Many dealers (ACS & CP included) are finding that the philatelic market very buoyant at present, particularly with strong demand for good quality early stamps. While the past five to ten years can be described as steady or even fairly static, these past months have seen collector activity increase significantly across the board. Here at CP and ACS we continue to be offered outstanding material as is evidenced by the offering in Auckland City Stamps Public Auction 19 to be held in Auckland on October 10, 2020. Certainly Lot 5590, a mint 1d Claret (est $20,000.00) is one of the best we have seen in recent times. We are also seeing much increased activity from existing clients around the world and refreshingly we have had an unprecedented level of enquiry from new collectors or reinvigorated collectors who have turned their attention and interest once again stamps and postal history.

The reasons behind this renewed interest are fairly straight forward and similar to the spike we are seeing globally in the price of gold. Covid-19 has seen huge numbers of people around the world cease, dramatically curtail or postpone their international travel and combined with the record low term deposit rates people have found that they have the dual scenario of extra time to enjoy their stamps and in many cases available money to spend on enhancing or improving their collection. The activity is strong across the board with collectors continuing to seek out and purchase better individual stamps as well as collection and box lots. This interest is combined with strong sales of albums and accessories. We anticipate that the demand will continue as the global outlook for at least the next 12-18 months appears to be more of the same.

Whether you have material to sell or are seeking to expand your collection the market right now is a good one, so enjoy.
