Welcome to our first newsletter for 2025.

NEW ZEALAND FORGED BOOKLETS

In December we became aware of Counterfeit NZ 2023 KiwiStamp & $16.50 Scenic Booklets being offered on eBay and TradeMe sites at very discounted prices. The booklets look at first glance normal but there are some differences in the paper and printing. The booklets are printed on the wrong paper stock and printed vertically on a small printing machine. Under a UV Lamp the booklet glows bright white instead of an orange glow. Now another major difference is that these booklets are unfolded whereas the NZ Post Booklets are already folded. Please watch out for cheap offers of recent booklets, if the offer looks too good, it probably is.

NEW DISCOVERIES

We are pleased to record the following new discoveries:

- 1.1967 3c Puarangi with a Selvedge Vertical Strip of 3 with the Purple and Green colours Omitted. This listing is CP OD5a(u).
- 2.1969 18c Wool Selvedge Block of 4 with the Magenta Colour Omitted. This will be listed as CP OD23a(u).
- 3.1979 $1 Shell Imprint Block of 6 with a Green & Carmine Offsets. This is listed as CP PA19a(w).
- 4.1898 9d Pictorial (Terraces) a Diagonal Plate Scratch has been recorded on 4 different printings of this stamp. See the article in The New Zealand Stamp Collector Page 32 March 2024.

ROYALPEX 2025 STAMP SHOW

The next National Stamp Exhibition is being held in Palmerston North at the Barber Hall, Waldegrave Street from Friday March 7 until Sunday March 9. Both David & Nigel will be in attendance as one of the dealers at the show and we look forward to catching up with clients. We will be bringing a good range of stock of New Zealand Stamps, Postal History and Postcards and please contact us if there is something specific you'd like us to bring. The show has NZ Post as the major sponsor in attendance and has over 500 competitive exhibits on display. Entry is FREE.
